GENERAL TRENDS

Twice a year, renowned fashion designers set the tone by presenting their collections of styles and trends that will influence the fashion industry for years to come. We have portrayed for you the most popular clothing trends of the season and analyzed as to how they could be interpreted for jewelry styles. Have fun and let these great fashion trends inspire your creativity!

TREND – LAND OF FIRE

The overall theme of this heartwarming jewelry reflects on color. A combination of two colors, such as grey and beige or grey and any warm color is most welcomed for materials such as wood, suede, gemstones, bone, coral, shells, resin, brown leather, etc.

A mixture of natural warm colours heat up this season's styles. Earthy brown, natural green, greyish blue, burnt orange and burgundy complete this theme.

TREND – GOLD RUSH

6

With Orfeo, we are free to explore many styles and trends: our jewelry can be glamorous, rock'n roll, ethnic inspired, etc., as long as it shines! The "in" combination is gold and black.

Time to shine! Gold is everywhere: chains, metallic lurex and other fabrics... You can't go wrong, all gold tones are fashionable.

TREND – TREASURE CHEST

Emilio Pucci

Here, it is clear that abundance, wealth and sparks are dominant. We are looking for jewelry that we would expect to find in the treasure vault of La Madalena, a Spanish ship that has been buried for centuries in the Gulf of Mexico. That's why we have the liberty of creating ethnic, antique and royal styles, combined with noble materials such as crystals, freshwater pearls, Abalone, Sterling silver, etc. The most popular colors are those of precious stones as well as gold and silver. Pectoral and plastron type necklaces and bangle type bracelets compose beautifully with this trend.

Whether dressy or casual, these embellished pieces seem to come straight out of a treasure chest: metallic fabrics, rich embroidery, encrusted with beads, stones and sequins.

TREND – VICTOR VICTORIA

Jewelry inspired by this trend is classic and plain. We give priority to gemstones, precious stones, pearls and crystal. Metal is used for specific intentions and discreetly. It is simple good taste fashion combined with the glow and shine of precious stones' lively colors, sometimes associated with black and white. Colored brooches, choker or princess necklaces and earrings are the perfect accessories to suit the Victor Victoria look.

16

17

19

18

Menswear is a recurring theme in several winter collections. Women are wearing tuxedos à la Julie Andrews in Victor Victoria. However, this season's blazers are more fitted at the waist, giving a more feminine silhouette.

TREND – PRINT-CRAZY

20

22

23

21

24

Jewelry speaking, let's get wild! We put together all kinds of designs, create asymmetrical patterns and then insert all sorts of beads such as stripes, squares, stars, spirals, etc.

Wow! Prints are multiplying! Mixing two or more prints in the same outfit is a big trend.

TREND – BEAUTY AND THE BEAST

With this eye-catching tribal style jewelry, sometimes messy, we have to include fangs, teeth, claws, fringes... We go all the way in playing the theme of snakes and animals, with feathers, bones, horn skin, suede, leather as well as beads made of sea snake skin. Blending these materials will result in jewelry looking at times natural and even primitive, and sometimes aggressive and wild.

25

27

26

28

Roberto Cavalli

Natural materials are a staple in every wardrobe. When winter rolls around, fur, wool, leather and suede warm us up. Feathers, snakeskin and animal prints make appearances as well.

TREND – NEW WOODSTOCK

The New Woodstock jewelry reflects a home-made and hippy style, made of materials such as feathers, suede, waxed cotton, glass, natural pearls, seeds and walnuts. It is usually a combination of antique metal with a color such as purple, burgundy, turquoise or navy blue. String necklaces, neck chains, charms, fringes and straps surely agree with this trend.

Versace

29

31

30

32

The hippie look is back, with draped fabrics, flowy long dresses. These light fabrics are unusual for colder months, but are often worn in deeper colours, or layered with luxurious fur coats.

TREND – MIXED MEDIA

33

35

34

36

37

What defines the Polychromatica jewelry is its layout of two or three flamboyant colors, often disposed in contrasting blocks, resulting in a colored and attractive visual effect dominating the jewelry's design.

Accessories (handbags, shoes, belts...) add interest to outfits. Fur and suede, sequins and tweed coexist in unexpected, yet novel ways.

TREND – BLACK SWAN

The black swan is synonymous with feminine and delicate, and the jewelry inspired by this trend truly reflects this image. Since they are made of black colored materials only, it can be interesting to work with contrasting textures of materials such as feathers, leather, suede, ribbons, metallic lace, black stones, volcanic stones, ceramic, glass and crystals. To better achieve the feminine style, opt for knots, fringes, acorn and flowers.

Elegant black is a staple in cold weather months. This season's black is more feminine than ever. Feathers and leather add drama to otherwise simple outfits.

TREND – PURE JOY

43

The pure happiness trend symbolizes simplicity. We use it to create monochrome jewelry with an elegant style through their design and with liveliness through their bright and saturated colors.

44

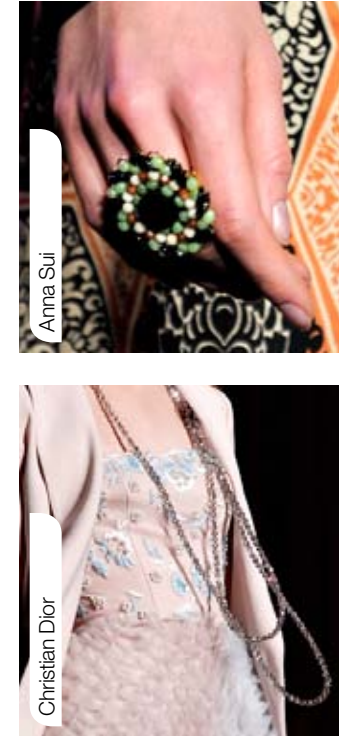

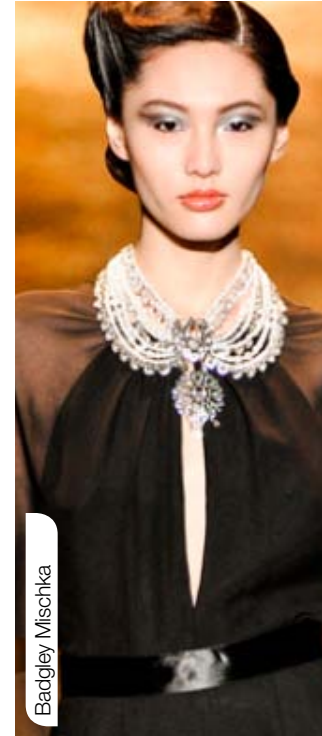

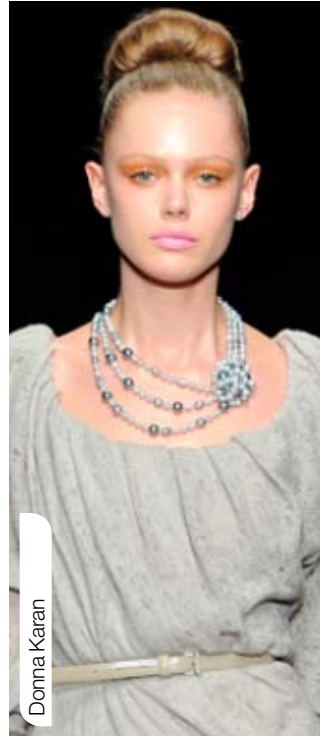

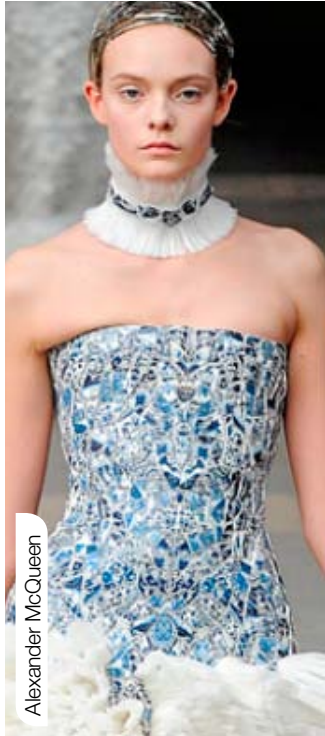

45

Out with bland minimalist styles and in with wild, bright and fun colours!
Outfits have more playful simple lines as well.
